EXPERT EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF MR. ██████'S CLAIM
Sworn Psychological Evaluation of Mr. A ██████ with Curriculum Vitae Conducted by ██████ Ph.D. Diagnosing Mr. A ██████ with "Other Trauma and Stressor-Related Disorder" and "Generalized Anxiety Disorder" stemming from the torture he suffered and fears at the hands of Egyptian authorities in Egypt. Confirming the continuing physical and emotional impacts of the arbitrary arrest, detention, and torture Mr. A ██████ suffered in ██████. Emphasizing that returning Mr. A ██████ to Egypt would "exacerbate his psychological disorder" and undermine his ongoing recovery as a torture survivor.	113	E.
Expert Letter of Geoffrey Mock, with Curriculum Vitae Egyptian Country Specialist for Amnesty International USA (AIUSA) Describing evidence from Amnesty International and the U.S. government, which suggests that if Mr. A ██████ is returned to Egypt, he will face continued threats and likely arrest, detention, and torture at the hands of Egyptians security officials. Explaining that the Mubarak regime abused emergency powers during the period Mr. A ██████ was arrested, resulting in "the muzzling of civil society" and "a silencing of independent political voices [and] free-thinkers" such as Mr. A ██████. Corroborating Mr. A ██████'s fear of return to Egypt by confirming that in 2021, Egyptian authorities "treat all criticism as criminal behavior equivalent to terrorism." Emphasizing that the Sisi government's accusations that the Muslim Brotherhood is a terrorist organization are "a blatant effort to use counter-terrorism as a justification to deny legal and political rights to opponents and independent Egyptian activists." Confirming that the Muslim Brotherhood leadership has repeatedly denounced terrorism and violence and that Amnesty International has no documentation that the group is active in organized violence.	126	F.

SWORN DECLARATIONS IN SUPPORT OF MR. A██████████'S CLAIM
Sworn Declaration of ██████████ S█████████ Mr. A█████████'s wife Corroborating Mr. A█████████'s reputation as a well-known social and political activist with a large following in Cairo on the basis of the ██████████ Movement and ██████████ magazine. Describing Mr. A█████████'s flight from Egypt to Qatar in ██████████ and fear of return to Egypt because of his activism. Confirming the difficult situation faced by Egyptians in Qatar amid political tensions between the two nations in 2017 and 2018 and describing how Mr. A█████████ struggled to find a way to maintain his employment sponsorship and lawful status in Qatar. Explaining the precautions Mr. A█████████ took in returning to Egypt in ██████████ and ██████████ Detailing the State Security raid on Mr. A█████████'s new home in ██████████ Egypt in ██████████ to arrest Mr. A█████████ while he was in the United States. Confirming that Mr. A█████████ is now a priority for the regime.	136	G.
Sworn Declaration of ██████████ A█████████ Mr. A█████████'s close friend and member of the ██████████ Movement Describing Mr. A█████████'s advocacy against extremism and commitment to independent thought and peaceful activism in Cairo. Confirming Mr. A█████████'s leadership roles in the ██████████ Movement and ██████████ Magazine, coordination of the ██████████ campaign against the return to power of the former Mubarak regime, and support for opposition presidential candidates. Describing State Security's indiscriminate targeting of suspected opposition in the wake of the 2015 assassination of the Attorney General, including some of Mr. A█████████'s friends. Describing the corruption and lack of coordination between Egyptian state entities that sometimes permits regime targets to enter and exit Egypt through the airport without being arrested and detained.	144	H.
Sworn Declaration of ██████████ E█████████ Mr. A█████████'s friend and student and a former political prisoner in Egypt Describing Mr. A█████████'s popularity because of his lectures and activism with Egyptian youth and explaining how Mr. A█████████'s large following may have been viewed as regime opposition. Mentioning that Mr. ██████████'s father, a retired Egyptian army general, warned him against association with the Muslim Brotherhood because Egyptian authorities were monitoring them. Detailing Mr. ██████████'s arbitrary arrest, detention, imprisonment, and torture in Egypt on fabricated charges. Describing how Egyptian authorities interrogated Mr. ██████████ while detained about Mr. A█████████ including about Mr. A█████████'s opinion on the Muslim Brotherhood. Corroborating lack of coordination between Egyptian state entities.	153	I.
